

Providing Benefits to Oregon Homecare and Personal Support Workers

Supplemental & Benefits Trusts

Dear Participant,

This document describes changes to the eligibility rules of the Oregon Homecare Workers Supplemental Trust (“Supplemental Trust”) effective August 1, 2016. Please read this summary carefully, and keep it with your Plan Booklet.

Enrollment Rules for Oregon Residents Residing More than 30 Miles From a Kaiser Medical Facility

1. The first full paragraph following the bulleted list in the sub-section entitled “Participants Residing in Oregon” on page 11 of the Plan Booklet is revised to read as follows:

However, if you reside within the Kaiser service area, but in a zip code which is more than thirty (30) miles from a Kaiser medical facility, you have the option of electing to enroll in any Trust-approved plan without losing eligibility for the benefits described in Section A.3 on page 14 of these Rules.

2. The following sentence is added to the end of the second full paragraph in the “Oregon” sub-section of the “Exchange Medical Insurance” section beginning on Page 17 of the Plan Booklet:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, effective August 1, 2016, if you live within the Kaiser service area but more than thirty (30) miles from a Kaiser medical facility, you may elect to enroll in any Trust-approved plan.
